

Middle Harbour Yacht Club's Code of Conduct

A person accepts responsibility by becoming a member of Middle Harbour Yacht Club (MHYC). Membership should be seen as a privilege and all members have the responsibility of ensuring that our club retains its reputation of being the "friendly" Yacht Club.

The underlying spirit of MHYC lies in the principle of being a "club" wherein the members are responsible for the Club's existence, both financially and operationally. Hence, the club requires the voluntary input of its members in order to care for the facilities and to function smoothly.

The objective of MHYC's Code of Conduct is to provide a standard code of behaviour for its members and to:

- Assist club members to understand the standards of conduct that are expected of them.
- Promote consistently high standards of behaviour across all activities within our club.
- Ensure the club fulfils its statutory duty to be ethical, fair and honest to its members and obligations to its employees.
- Build community trust in the club and enhance public opinion of the sport of sailing.
- Ensure the safety and welfare of children.
- Ensure that MHYC is enjoyed by all members and guests.

The Code of conduct of MHYC is based on the following key categories:

Conduct

MHYC seeks to operate in an open and friendly environment, where people show respect for each other, personal property and the club. Each Member should be a positive "role model" and as such, Members shall:

- Show respect and courtesy to all club officials, members and patrons. They shall not tarnish the reputation of the club, officers, Directors, committees, employees, management or bring the club into disrepute.
- Endeavour to operate in non-discriminatory manner and ensure each person has an equal opportunity and give a "fair go".
- Be mindful of their actions in relation to individual safety and safety of all others involved in the club.
- Abide by the constitution and by-laws.
- Comply with and adhere to reasonable directives and requests of Club staff and officers of the club.
- Act responsibly at all times and accept responsibility for their actions. Each member should understand the possible consequences of breaching MHYC's rules and regulations and comply with and adhere to any penalty imposed by the Club.

Behaviour

All members are expected to demonstrate the following behaviour. They must:

- Treat all persons with respect and courtesy and have proper regard for the dignity, rights and worth of others.
- Respect the privacy and be ethical, fair and honest in all their dealings with other people.
- Comply with all applicable laws, including liquor laws and responsible service of alcohol standards.
- Act in sportsman like manner and operate within the rules and spirit of the sport when representing the club both on and off the water.

- Operate within the rules of the sport including national and international guidelines that govern the sport of sailing.
- When participating in racing Members will accept handicapping, protest and racing outcomes and above all must not display rudeness, harassment or improper conduct towards other competitors or officials.
- The use of mobile phones, particularly in the clubhouse should be discreet and consider others in the vicinity.
- Smoking is prohibited in all MHYC Buildings and on balconies.
- MHYC will not tolerate:
 - Offensive language or rudeness,
 - Excessive use of alcohol under the Liquor Licensing Laws,
 - Inappropriate display of temper, verbal abuse (eg abusive, intimidating and/or threatening behaviour to members or guests),
 - Any form of abuse, harassment, ridicule or threatening behaviour, whether physical, verbal or by electronic form,
 - Physical Violence (eg touching, pushing, fighting or that involving threat or use of a weapon),
 - The use or encouragement of illegal drugs within the premises,
 - Wilful destruction of property – either to others or the club,
 - Any form of discrimination.

Child Protection

The safety and welfare of our junior members and other children is paramount.

- Members must demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility especially when dealing with person under 18 years of age. Your words and actions are an example.
- Members, Office Bearers, staff and volunteers must comply with the Child Protection laws. Any members working with children must obtain the “Working With children Check”.
- Persons under the age of 18 shall not be permitted to purchase or be supplied with alcohol or tobacco. The Licensing Laws do not permit children under the age of eighteen years to be served or consume alcohol in any part of the Club.
- Members should avoid unaccompanied and unobserved activities with persons under 18 years of age wherever possible.
- Children permitted to use the Clubhouse must observe the same dress regulations as Members.
- Children under the age of 18 must at all time remain in the company of a member. Parent and guardians at all times shall be responsible for the behaviour of their children on club premises, including the beach, marina and carparks. Parents and guardians of children whose behaviour is socially unacceptable shall be requested to remove them from club’s premises.

The Club Integrity & Privacy

It is the obligation of all club members to maintain the integrity and security of the MHYC’s confidential documents and information.

- No member shall represent the club in any dealings, unless authorised by the club.
- Members shall not expect preferential treatment, nor seek favours from the Club’s Management or its employees.

- Do not use your involvement in the MHYC to promote your own beliefs behaviours or practices where these are inconsistent with those of the club.
- Subject to Clause 6(b) of the Club's Constitution and the provisions of Sections 10 (6) and 10 (6a) of the Registered Clubs Act NSW, a member of the Club, whether or not he/ she is a member of the Board, or of any other committee of the Club, shall not be entitled , under the rules of the Club or otherwise, to derive, directly or indirectly, any profit, benefit or advantage from the Club that is not offered equally to every full member of the Club.
